

Passive interface for DSP AP photocells

This passive interface optimizes the installation times of the specific PLC (MCS) and allows you to pick up the signals essential for the correct operation of the DSP AP photocells without having to re-wire the original optical or magnetic lines of the machine.

Adaptor gender changer

The interface is supplied together with the appropriate adapter for installation.